  - David Meinijies of Connection Telecom (Pty) Ltd
  - Robert Priebatsch of African Sales Company
- Lance Schapiro (Schapiro) and Piers Marsden (Marsden) – joint business rescue practitioners (by invitation)

1. The meeting commenced with a brief welcome by JdH;
2. JdH handed over to Marsden for an update. Marsden confirmed that a number of expressions of interest had been received with regard to purchasing Edcon's assets. These included both Edgars and Jet stores and the financial services business.
3. Deloitte has completed the liquidation calculation. In a winding-up scenario the dividend for concurrent creditors is zero. Secured creditors would receive a small dividend – under 15c in the Rand. The liquidation alternative is also extremely negative from a jobs retention and ongoing business perspective. It needs to be avoided at all costs.
4. The second alternative is a wind down (in business rescue) with no ongoing business beyond July / August 2020. This may result in a very small dividend for concurrent creditors, but is not materially different to the liquidation scenario.

5. The best alternative is a sale of stores. The benefit of this for trade creditors will largely be ongoing trade. It is unlikely to result in a materially better position from a dividend perspective. The expressions of interest received in relation to the stores range between 300 and 433 Jet stores (out of approx. 670) and between 90 and 140 Edgars stores (out of approx. 190). No purchaser is looking to take both Edgars and Jet stores. In general the bigger stores are more attractive to potential purchasers, so the offers cover a decent proportion of the floor space. The BRPs are not in a position to disclose who the buyers are to the committee. This is to protect the process rather than due to a lack of transparency. They are all household names.
6. The next step is to take the expressions of interest and to obtain binding offers. Labour and landlords both want as many stores sold as possible. To some extent trade creditors should be of the same view as they would like a trading partner going forward that is as large as possible. A balance must be struck between the number of stores sold and the price that can be achieved. Purchasers cannot be pushed to pay too high a price – if they are pressured into taking stores that are not profitable this starts to have a negative effect on the price offered.
7. The BRPs would like to close the sales in the next 30 to 45 days and have already engaged with Competition authorities, whose approval will be required (ideally on an expedited basis). Trade creditors need certainty as to timing, funding and who the new purchaser is going to be, so the BRPs need to move quickly. The business rescue plan (plan) will therefore describe process and not outcome. It will set out the various bids (without disclosing who the bidders are) and seek a mandate for approval provided the sales meets certain criteria.
8. The BRPs have had a further discussion with the secured creditors and the BRPs' attorneys around the secured creditors' unperfected general notarial bond (GNB). Unfortunately there are two hedge funds in this body who are primarily concerned around maximum recovery. They are very vocal around their security and are advancing the position that once the inventory is sold, it becomes cash and therefore falls into the cession of credit balances. Discussions with this group would have been easier if they were all South African banks/financial institutions with "SA Inc" in mind.
9. The BRPs have made it quite clear that:
  - 9.1 The secured creditors may be legally correct, but commercially this makes no sense and in that scenario it would be better to simply liquidate (and not sell the stock and convert it to cash). They have also been given the grim picture of liquidation.
  - 9.2 in order to meet the hurdle of a business rescue, they have to provide some recovery for trade creditors (i.e. they must be better off than in liquidation).
  - 9.3 Trade creditors as a block will have negative control of the vote to approve the plan.
  - 9.4 The possibility of a finding a buyer for the business with a very unhappy / financially impaired supplier base would be difficult

10. The BRPs, together with their attorneys, believe that they have found a solution that could see the "encumbered" assets, i.e. the inventory, sold and the unsecured creditors participating on a fair basis with the secured lenders as pertains to these assets. This would see trade creditors getting a fair recovery based on inventory and the trade out.
11. The BRPs are working against the clock. They cannot delay the publication of the plan as they will run out of cash and not be able to place summer orders timeously, as mentioned at the previous meeting.
12. The BRPs therefore do not have time to get an answer from the PIC lenders in regard to any possible funding for Edcon (as previously discussed by the committee), and whilst the anger directed to these lenders at the last meeting may be valid, by the time we get a response from the PIC is highly likely to be too late. The PIC took approximately a month to response to the request made to them shortly before business rescue commenced (and declined to fund). This time is no longer available to the BRPs.
13. As a result of Covid-19 regulations, there cannot be a formal meeting to consider the plan as contemplated by the Companies Act. The BRPs propose that they ask for written questions to be sent via the committees so that they can address them, and once this is done the meeting can then be adjourned for creditors to consider their vote. The BRPs will prepare a process for the committee to consider. They do not want to reduce the consultation process, but practically it is difficult to have a meeting attended by all creditors (even on an electronic platform)
14. Marsden provided a trading update: May trading finished well. There appeared to have been pent up demand. June has started slower. Edcon has approached the UIF in regard to all available schemes. They received a first payment but were declined in terms of the 6 month TERS process. The BRPs are getting as much liquidity into the system as possible. The stores are reasonably well stocked. Consignment arrangements appear to be working well. The payment of customer accounts has been slow. Many customers pay in store and then buy again once they have paid. For a period they couldn't come to stores to pay. Additionally, the liquidity of many customers is also limited. It is difficult to know what the business will look like going forward. A challenge is that potential purchasers are battling to model a post Covid world.
15. Numerous questions were then asked. A summary of the responses follows:
- 15.1 Marsden confirmed that the plan must be published on Monday, 8 June. Creditors will have 5 to 10 business days to consider the plan. They are happy to give creditors the longest possible period. The main urgency is to publish the plan (not to vote on it) because as soon as there is a published plan they can commence the retrenchment processes.
- 15.2 The plan will not disclose who the potential buyers are and what they are offering – the BRPs cannot disclose competing bids – but it will refer to the range of stores in which there is interest (there will be a full schedule) and the range from a dividend perspective. To the extent that there are stores that no purchaser is interested in, those leases will be terminated immediately. Lessors will have damages claims. The plan will limit the relevant period for damages claims to three months.

- 15.3 Marsden was asked whether trading purely on a consignment model had been considered given the low risk this poses to Edcon and working capital is then not required. Marsden confirmed that this has been explored and modelled. It allows ongoing trading on an indefinite basis but still does not provide the funds necessary for severance packages, payment of secured creditors and the claims of concurrent creditors i.e., it does not deal with the pre-business rescue debt. Fresh cash of R500 million to R1 billion is still needed.
- 15.4 Marsden confirmed that purchasers are aware that there is stock that is not owned by Edcon due to retentions of title.
- 15.5 Marsden confirmed that Edcon's infrastructure such as IT systems would need to continue to operate over the transition to new owners. A creditor indicated that engagement with IT service providers had been poor to date. Marsden apologised. New governance structures are in place governing processes such as the approval of orders and the management of cash. This may slow things down. Transitional services required by new owners are part of the negotiation process with them. Edcon has some experience in regard to migrating systems due to, inter alia, the steps required to migrate Legit when it was sold. Buyers require periods between 3 and 9 months to migrate systems.
- 15.6 Marsden confirmed that in regard to leases that were being cancelled there would be no reinstatement of premises or "white boxing". Edcon simply does not have the funds for this. The failure to do so would form part of a landlord's damages claims.
- 15.7 Immediately after the plan is published they will be issuing section 189 notices. There will be stores no buyer wants to acquire and those staff will need to be retrenched. In regard to stores that are retained, the employees will transfer across to the new owners in terms of section 197 of the Labour Relations Act. As regards head office infrastructure, some may be needed but the businesses will be smaller and therefore there will be the need to shrink the staff complement. In addition buyers will have existing infrastructure that overlaps and therefore retrenchments will be required. In terms of top management, the BRPs do not know what the purchasers will chose do.
- 15.8 Marsden confirmed that there has been no litigation commenced against the BRPs other than the liquidation application already disclosed. The BRPs are required to notify affected persons of all litigation against them during business rescue. Pre-commencement litigation is subject to the moratorium. They do not need to disclose litigation they institute, but in this regard there are logistics providers holding inventory and alleging liens. The BRPs are trying to get the stock released and are bringing actions in this regard. Some of this stock may be subject to reservations of ownership. Creditors are welcome to take action against these parties, but Edcon is already doing what is necessary to secure the release of the stock.
- 15.9 Marsden confirmed that there is unlikely to be a meaningful dividend paid to concurrent creditors. There is a lot of money owing to creditors and limited inventory to sell - much of which is subject to reservations of ownership. Potential purchasers are not offering to pay much beyond the value of the assets they will acquire as they pick up obligations such as leases and employees. The dividend will be better than in a liquidation or wind down scenario, but there will be substantial losses. In previous restructures of Edcon trade creditors have been relatively unscathed compared to shareholders, lenders, landlords and employees. Not so in this business rescue. There will be write offs for lenders this time too.

- 15.10 Committee members again asked about the existence of secured creditors as they were given to understand that all debt was converted to equity in the previous restructure. JdH offered to review exactly what happened, but confirmed that there was unlikely to have been any impropriety in the process. Various creditors were unhappy that this debt had allegedly not been disclosed to them. They chose to trade with Edcon on the understanding that there was no more debt. Marsden confirmed that in the last restructure there was not just a write off of R4/5bn of debt. There was also new equity put in to keep the business going. It is important to note that secured creditors will not receive a good recovery either. There is no pile of cash available. One of the creditors referred the committee to an announcement made by Edcon in June last year when the restructure completed. It was clear from this that it was announced that the lenders converted debt to shares and notes and that the notes would convert to shares on Edcon hitting certain targets, i.e. the notes were always in place and there was therefore always debt that remained. Creditors stressed that it was not correct that they hadn't taken pain before – they had indeed. There were delayed payments in the past and Edcon debt levels wouldn't be so high if the trade creditors hadn't contributed to cash flow.
- 15.11 Marsden confirmed that the BRPs will make the relevant documents available to JdH to review. He reaffirmed that the commercial reality was that even secured creditors would have a poor recovery and that secured creditors have written off billions in the past and put new cash into the business. Trade creditors have benefited from this. Marsden also confirmed that once a plan is approved it will be some time before payment is made to creditors and there will be therefore be time (30 – 60 days) for trade creditors to investigate whether they want to challenge the security alleged by the secured creditors. For now the focus should be on approving a plan. The BRPs would be willing to put wording in the plan to reserve the trade creditors' rights in this regard. Marsden confirmed that all creditors vote on the plan whether secured or not and they all vote in one pool, so there is no need to determine whether they are secured or not for voting purposes.
- 15.12 Marsden confirmed that in regard to current invoicing and payments (post-commencement) creditors should speak to their usual contact people at Edcon and escalate queries to the dedicated email address (creditors@edconbr.co.za) if necessary. It was emphasised that this email address is not for general operational issues – only for escalation when usual routes are unsuccessful.
- 15.13 Marsden confirmed that they were still investigating problems with submitting online claim forms and attempting to resolve these issues.
- 15.14 In regard to stores in other countries, the position differed depending on the country. These stores are in different legal entities that are not in business rescue. Edcon is just the shareholder. Zambia is in liquidation. In Ghana there is only one store which was closing anyway. Mozambique is a good operation. There are also operations in Botswana, Lesotha and Swaziland. Where these stores can continue to trade Edcon will continue to support them until purchasers elect whether or not to buy them too.

16. There will not be a meeting on Monday when the plan is published. It will be distributed by email and the email will contain details as to when the meeting to vote on the plan will be held. JdH suggested that once everyone has had a chance to review the plan the committee should meet to discuss it and she could answer any questions. Creditors would then be in a position to make informed decisions.
17. Queries regarding retention of title/ownership issues should be directed to Lesly Rabinowitz at the following address: lrabinowitz@matusonassociates.co.za
18. The meeting closed at approximately 6.28 pm.

Handwritten signatures and initials in black ink, including a large signature on the left and initials 'M' and 'H' on the right.

Subject: RE: Edcon in BR

Hi David

Everyone is entitled to their personal views/opinions and an email from any one person certainly doesn't represent the views of the committee. There are certainly divergent views amongst committee members. Expressing those views in this forum in a reasonable manner does not have legal implications. I am also not aware of any intended action against the BRPs.

My personal views, again not the views of the committee, are:

- That the BRPs inherited a very difficult set of facts and circumstances not of their making;
- They have done their best under challenging circumstances to balance the rights of all stakeholders;
- The situation that concurrent creditors find themselves in is extremely unpleasant and I have huge sympathy for them;
- The BRPs cannot change the facts and have tried to ensure the best possible outcome for all stakeholders,

If Malcolm wants to label me a "spin doctor" for the BRPs based on the above, then so be it. I am merely doing my job and trying to ensure that the committee has a realistic approach based on a correct understanding of the law and facts. It does not mean that I think the situation creditors find themselves in is fair or that I lack sympathy. I also have no reason to spin the facts so as to favour the BRPs. Criticising me is just shooting the messenger. As for the BRPs – I have no doubt they would like to be paying you a much better dividend, but they have to work within the realms of the possible. Adopting an adversarial approach is counterproductive.

I suggest we leave it at that.

Kind regards

Juliette de Hutton

Dear Sirs

RE: EDCON LIMITED (IN BUSINESS RESCUE) ("Edcon")

1. We confirm that we act on behalf of the business rescue practitioners of Edcon, who have furnished us with your 21 page letter dated 17 June 2020 ("17 June letter") and your letter dated 18 June 2020 ("18 June letter") for reply.
2. We do not propose dealing with all of the allegations contained in your letters and all of our clients' rights to do so at a later stage, should same become necessary, are reserved.

Legal and Factual Position

3. The Companies Act, 71 of 2008 ("Companies Act") is clear in regard to:
  - 3.1. our clients' powers, duties and obligations as the business rescue practitioners of Edcon;
  - 3.2. the rights of all affected persons; and
  - 3.3. the contents of the business rescue plan and voting rights in respect thereof.
4. Our clients have been, and will continue, exercising their statutory powers, duties and obligations throughout the business rescue proceedings of Edcon.
5. In regard to the rights of and participation by creditors:
  - 5.1. Section 145 of the Companies Act sets out the rights of creditors to:
    - 5.1.1. notice and participation;
    - 5.1.2. form a committee, and through that committee are entitled to be consulted by the business rescue practitioners during the development of the business rescue plan; and
    - 5.1.3. vote to amend, approve or reject a proposed business rescue plan in the manner contemplated in section 152 of the Companies Act.

- 5.2. Section 149 of the Companies Act sets out the functions, duties and membership of committees of affected persons, which is limited to consultation and the receipt and consideration of reports. Notably, this section specifically prohibits the committees from directing or instructing the business rescue practitioners.
6. In regard to the business rescue plan, section 150 of the Companies Act deals with the proposal of the business rescue plan and details the information and documentation which must be provided to affected persons. In particular, this section provides that the business rescue plan "must contain all the information reasonably required to facilitate affected persons in deciding whether or not to accept or reject the plan, and must be divided into three Parts..., which must include at least - ..." (emphasis added).
7. After consultation with the respective committees, our clients prepared and published a business rescue plan. The published business rescue plan:
- 7.1. complies with section 150 of the Companies Act; and
- 7.2. seeks to rescue Edcon in a manner that balances the rights and interests of all relevant stakeholders (i.e. not just one category of affected persons), as contemplated in section 7(k) of the Companies Act.
8. The published business rescue plan clearly provides that the proposal to rescue Edcon is to achieve a better return through the implementation of the Sales Process. This is what creditors have been requested to approve and affected persons have been provided with all of the information reasonably required to facilitate them in deciding whether or not to accept or reject this proposal.
9. Moreover, since the publication of the business rescue plan, our clients have consulted with the respective committees to clarify any questions and, although not required for purposes of voting on the business rescue plan, have provided additional information and documentation. In this regard, we are instructed that our clients have furnished a further document explaining the business rescue dividend calculation as well as Edcon's income statement and balance sheet for the 2016 to 2020 financial years and Edcon's balance sheet as at 30 April 2020 together with supporting schedules.
10. Against the aforesaid legal and factual position, we deal below with the matters raised in your respective letters.

17 June letter

11. Role of the business rescue practitioners and purported lack of information (paragraphs 5 to 12):
- 11.1. We have already recorded the factual and legal position above.
- 11.2. To the extent that your clients hold the view that additional information and responses must be furnished to meet "their expectations", we reiterate that the Companies Act is clear in regard to what the business rescue plan must contain and does not require individual expectations to be met for the purposes of such compliance.

- 11.3. The additional financial information and documentation which your clients seek are not necessary for the purposes of facilitating affected persons in deciding whether or not to accept or reject the business rescue plan, which, as set out above, proposes to rescue Edcon through the implementation of the Sales Process. Indeed, no explanation is furnished as to why your clients view this information as reasonably required to facilitate them in deciding whether or not to accept or reject the business rescue plan.
12. Capacity as the business rescue practitioners (paragraphs 13 to 16):
- 12.1. The physical location of a business rescue practitioner, particularly in light of the current COVID-19 pandemic, is irrelevant. The exercise of a business rescue practitioner's statutory powers, duties and obligations is a factual and legal enquiry. As recorded above, our clients have been, and will continue, exercising their statutory powers, duties and obligations throughout the business rescue proceedings. To the extent that it has not become clear throughout the numerous meetings held with both of our clients and the contents of the business rescue plan, our clients have indeed effectively taken over the management of Edcon and we note that no allegations to the contrary have been made in your letters.
- 12.2. In regard to our clients' fees, and as stated above, our clients have provided a further document explaining the calculation of the business rescue dividend. The anticipated receipts and expenses (including the costs of business rescue), based on the Wind-Down Process, are included in the business rescue dividend calculation.
- 12.3. In regard to the agreement for increased remuneration, the business rescue plan states that the increase is in accordance with market related hourly rates. This proposal is far less than what many business rescue practitioners propose in the form of a percentage or set amount based on the conclusion of sale agreements and/or realisation proceeds.
- 12.4. The contents of paragraph 16 are misplaced and appear to be based on a misunderstanding of the comparison being made in the business rescue plan. The comparison of fees which are likely to arise in a liquidation and the fees which are likely to arise in a business rescue is not "self-serving", it is a factual comparison based on the prescribed liquidators' fees in a liquidation and the anticipated business rescue practitioners' fees in the business rescue. There is also no suggestion in the business rescue plan that our clients would be appointed as liquidators should Edcon be wound up.
13. Reservation of ownership (paragraphs 17 to 24):
- 13.1. There is no need to deal specifically with reservation of ownership claims in the business rescue plan. Claims are dealt with in terms of the provisions of the business rescue plan and any suppliers who have proved a reservation of ownership over stock are dealt with in terms of section 134 of the Companies Act and the provisions of agreements concluded with such suppliers in regard to ongoing sales during the business rescue.

- 13.2. Your surprise and allegations in paragraphs 18, 21, 22, 23 and 24 are unfounded as our clients have invited creditors to submit their claims since the first meeting of creditors and have repeatedly recorded that those creditors asserting a retention of ownership must follow a process of proving the existence of the reservation of ownership and thereafter identifying the stock subject to the reservation of ownership and reaching an agreement with our clients in regard to the further treatment of such stock. Our clients have also provided the contact details of the relevant person in the business rescue team dealing specifically with reservation of ownership claims. The minutes of the respective meetings clearly record the aforesaid.
- 13.3. In the circumstances, those of your clients who are asserting a reservation of ownership must immediately notify our clients accordingly so that the necessary steps can be taken to establish whether there is indeed a valid reservation of ownership.
- 13.4. Please clarify which clients you are referring to in paragraph 19.
14. Current inventory and cash balance and trading from 1 May 2020 to 1 June 2020 (paragraphs 25 to 31):
- 14.1. We have already dealt with what the business rescue plan is required to contain and the information and documentation to which your clients are entitled for purposes of voting on the business rescue plan.
- 14.2. As set out above:
- 14.2.1. Your clients have been furnished with additional documentation and information, which is not required for purposes of voting on the business rescue plan.
- 14.2.2. Your letter fails to set out why the further information and documentation is necessary for the purposes of voting on the business rescue plan.
15. Alleged misrepresentations (paragraphs 32 to 38):
- 15.1. These paragraphs fail to take into account that Edcon recently commenced business rescue.
- 15.2. Our clients are well aware of their statutory duties, including their duties in terms of section 141 of the Companies Act, and will duly exercise same.
- 15.3. Our clients have already started investigating the concerns raised in these paragraphs and your clients will be advised of the outcome of our clients' investigations.

- 16.4. Your allegations that our clients have "fobbed off" the concerns raised by your clients are accordingly without merit and denied.
16. Reliance on Deloitte (paragraphs 39 to 43):
- 16.1. Paragraph 40 of your letter correctly points out that the Companies Act does not prescribe that an independent party must calculate the probable dividend.
- 16.2. Notwithstanding this, the liquidation calculation was prepared by Deloitte, which, despite being Edcon's auditors, remains an external and independent third party.
- 16.3. The anticipated business rescue dividend was calculated by our clients.
- 16.4. Our clients have carefully considered the asset and liability position of Edcon and are satisfied with the probable dividend indicated in the business rescue plan to be received by creditors if Edcon were to be placed in liquidation.
17. Apparent favouring of secured/preferred creditors (paragraphs 44 to 50):
- 17.1. The allegations contained in these paragraphs are denied for the reasons already set out herein.
- 17.2. Our clients have and will continue to act in the interests of all stakeholders.
- 17.3. The amounts reflected in the list of creditors are amounts reflected in Edcon's records as at the commencement date. As recorded in the plan, all creditors will still be required to prove their claims to the satisfaction of our clients.
18. Alleged secured/preferred creditors (paragraphs 51 to 55):
- 18.1. The contents of these paragraphs are noted and we will address you separately in regard to the provision of these documents.
19. Additional enquiries/information and documents (paragraphs 56 to 71):
- 19.1. The Sales Process proposed in the business rescue plan is not "unprecedented and audacious".
- 19.2. Insofar as your clients raise concerns with the Sales Process, we reiterate that the business rescue plan specifically records that our clients will convene meetings with the respective committees to discuss:
- 19.2.1. the binding offers received and the acceptance of one or more of the binding offers in the Accelerated Sales Process; and
- 19.2.2. updates on the Wind-Down Process,

040-294

- 19.3. Your clients will accordingly be fully apprised of developments throughout the different stages of the Sales Process and will have an opportunity to address any concerns and/or views in regard to same during such meetings. Our clients will carefully consider the views of the respective committees and will act in the best interests of all Affected Persons.
- 19.4. As stated above, our clients will conduct the necessary investigations in regard to Edcon's affairs, business, property and financial position and take the necessary steps pursuant to same.
- 19.5. The loans to lenders have not been subordinated.
- 19.6. In regard to:
- 19.6.1. Paragraph 63, the increased anticipated dividend was explained during the meeting, which is due to the allocation of proceeds from unencumbered assets.
  - 19.6.2. Paragraph 64, the business rescue plan sets out the proposed allocation of proceeds to the respective creditors. Creditors have been requested to approve this allocation of proceeds.
  - 19.6.3. Paragraph 65, value in regard to mobile related income has been included in the forecasts.
  - 19.6.4. Paragraphs 66 and 68, please explain why such information is required by your clients.
  - 19.6.5. Paragraph 67, we have already dealt with the list of creditors and treatment of claims above.
  - 19.6.6. Paragraph 69, our clients will make the report prepared by Deloitte available to your clients upon signature of a "no harm document".
  - 19.6.7. Paragraph 70, our clients calculated the business rescue dividend and have already provided the calculations in support thereof.
  - 19.6.8. Paragraph 71, our clients will provide the minutes of the respective meetings, where such minutes were taken.

20. Concerns with meeting procedure (paragraphs 72 to 76):

- 20.1. As set out in the business rescue plan, the advent of COVID-19 has resulted in the meeting in terms of section 151 of the Companies Act ("section 151 meeting") having to be held electronically. As you are aware, Edcon has numerous affected persons and our clients have attempted to make the section 151 meeting as accessible as possible (arguably more accessible than in person meetings). Contrary to your allegations, proper consideration has been given to the "mechanics of holding" the section 151 meeting.

- 20.2. Our clients are satisfied that paragraph 11.5 of the plan provides effective compliance with the provisions of the Companies Act and provides creditors with a proper and fair opportunity to provide proxy forms and to change same prior to the announcement of the final outcome of the vote. Moreover, the reason for the adjournment provided for in paragraph 11.5 is to deal with any queries and/or motions and verify the votes received.
- 20.3. Creditors will be afforded an opportunity to address any queries and submit any motions contemplated in terms of section 152 of the Companies Act in writing during the section 151 meeting.
- 20.4. In regard to enquiries about proxy forms, creditors are being reminded to submit their proxy forms as soon as possible.
- 20.5. The allegations contained in paragraph 76 are denied. Our clients are in a position to convene and conduct a legitimate and lawful meeting.

21. Role of independent chairperson (paragraphs 77 to 87):

- 21.1. The involvement of our clients' offices in another matter as well as the chairperson's involvement in another matter are irrelevant.
- 21.2. Our clients are appointed in their individual representative capacities as the business rescue practitioners of Edcon, not their offices. We note, however, that these paragraphs do not take this issue further but rather challenge the appointment of the independent chairperson based on a perception of your clients. These paragraphs do not set out any facts justifying the perception of your clients, or whether the same the perception is held by other members of the committee.
- 21.3. In the circumstances, our clients will address this issue at the next creditors' committee meeting to ascertain if the committee wishes to appoint another chairperson.

22. Urgency (paragraphs 88 to 93):

- 22.1. It is denied that there is "indecent haste" and that our clients are "trying to steamroll" the business rescue plan. Your clients are also not being "cajoled into a vote". You are well aware that your clients can exercise their votes on the business rescue plan as they deem fit.
- 22.2. Our clients have set out the reasons why it is imperative for the section 151 meeting to be held on 22 June 2020. We reiterate what has been advised before, being that the proposal to rescue Edcon is to achieve a better return through the implementation of the Sales Process. This is what creditors have been requested to approve.

22.3. You will appreciate that before our clients can proceed further with such process, our clients and interested parties require confirmation that the Sales Process has been approved by creditors in terms of the plan.

22.4. As set out above, to allay any concerns which your clients may have in regard to the Sales Process and our clients' discretion in regard to the business rescue proceedings, in particular, the determination of the final binding offer/s in the Accelerated Sales Process and implementation of the Wind-Down Process, we confirm that our clients will consult with creditors throughout the business rescue process on these aspects.

23. Conclusion (paragraphs 84 to 101):

23.1. The section 151 meeting is a statutory meeting which our clients are obliged to convene within the stipulated statutory timeframe. The legal options available to your clients are to exercise their voting rights in terms of section 152 of the Companies Act at the section 151 meeting. As stated above, affected persons will be afforded an opportunity to make motions and submit questions in terms of section 152 of the Companies Act in writing during the section 151 meeting.

23.2. Consequently, there is no legal basis to approach the court, let alone seek any punitive costs order against our clients for complying with their statutory obligations. Any attempt to do so will be opposed by our clients and the appropriate costs order will be sought.

23.3. Moreover, and as is evident from what has been set out herein, our clients have properly consulted with all affected persons and provided additional information and documentation, over and above what is reasonably required to facilitate affected persons in deciding whether or not to accept or reject the plan.

18 June letter

24. The queries raised in this letter have been dealt with above.

Conclusion

25. We reiterate that our clients;

25.1. have developed a business rescue plan which seeks to rescue Edcon in a manner that balances the rights and interests of all relevant stakeholders;

25.2. have provided affected persons with all of the information reasonably required to facilitate them in deciding whether or not to accept or reject the business rescue plan;

25.3. have been, and will continue, exercising their statutory powers, duties and obligations throughout the business rescue proceedings of Edcon; and

040-297

25.4. will continue to consult with the respective committees throughout the business rescue process.

26. In addition, your clients:

26.1. will be afforded an opportunity to make motions and submit questions in terms of section 152 of the Companies Act in writing during the section 151 meeting; and 26.2. are entitled to exercise their voting rights in terms of the business rescue plan as they deem fit by way of submitting their completed proxy forms.

27. All of our clients' rights are reserved.

Yours faithfully

Edward Nathan Sonnenbergs Inc.

105. In the circumstances, there is no contradiction between the complaints of the claimants that had they known the true financial position of Edcon they would not have supplied goods to it and the assertion by the claimants of Reservations of Ownership over their goods that were supplied by them to Edcon.

Lack of Agreement on Quanta

106. In the letter addressed to the Justice who has graciously acceded to dealing with the present dispute, the claimants put up a schedule reflecting what they assert is owing to them by Edcon as well as what they assert they can exercise Reservations of Ownership over as at 29 April 2020.
107. Annexed hereto marked "YV17" is a letter from the claimants addressed to the respondents on 28 July 2020. The second and third respondents were asked whether they were disputing both liability as well as quanta. Reference is made to paragraph 8 of that letter.
108. Annexed hereto marked "YV18" is the response from the respondents dated 29 July 2020, wherein the second and third respondents advised that they were still in the process of reconciling the amounts and that they would revert once the reconciliation had been completed. Reference is made to paragraph 6 of that letter.

109. Annexed hereto marked "YV19" is a further letter from the claimants to the respondents, dated 31 July 2020, where claimants again raised the matter of the reconciliation more particularly in respect of Clematis. Reference is made to paragraph 4.
110. To date hereof, the claimants have not heard from the second and third respondents in regard to this issue.
111. In the circumstances, this Tribunal will have to determine the quanta as well.
112. In this regard, the claimants refer to the affidavit of Roheeth Roshenall wherein he explains the procedure and methodology employed by claimants to determine the quanta.
113. For the sake of completeness, I should also record that the schedules and all the related invoices for each of the claimants, other than for the eighth claimant Clematis, were made available to the BRPs via a shared link with the documents having been uploaded onto the computer system of the attorneys of the claimants and that this was so made available on 20 July 2020. The link was the following:-

Handwritten signature and initials in black ink, consisting of a large stylized 'O' or 'Q' shape, a vertical line with a horizontal crossbar, and a smaller circle.

https://patherandpather-my.sharepoint.com/:f/g/personal/fiona\_patherandpather\_co\_za/E1-3S30D3cdOr3twUu7BjcQB4QMd0ZMOal6wfhX0rCx80A?e=Tzu4RI

114. In regard to the eighth claimant, Clematis, the same documents were made available to the BRPs on 11 August 2020. This delay was occasioned by the fact that Clematis joined the Reservation of Ownership claim somewhat later than the other claimants. Clematis' documents were also made available via the same share link.

 DEPONENT

I hereby certify that the deponent has acknowledged that he knows and understands the contents of this Affidavit which was signed and sworn before me at Durban on this the 11th day of AUGUST 2020, the regulations contained in government notice no. 1258 of 21 July 1972, as amended, and government notice no. R1648 of 19 August 1977, as amended, having been complied with.

by the eSupplyChain portal. Again, this was the reason for the process identified in annexure YV12.

46. In respect of paragraphs 73 to 89:

46.1. The claimants conveniently fail to identify any reservation of ownership in their favour, or acknowledgement thereof by Edcon or the practitioners.

46.2. In terms of the process, certain suppliers established a valid reservation of ownership, where it was expressly agreed between Edcon and the respective supplier, and were dealt with accordingly.

46.3. The rhetoric questions do not contribute to the claimants' case. Moreover, the parties were not ad idem on the assertion of a reservation of ownership by the claimants.

46.4. The remaining allegations are atmospheric, sensational, unfounded, irrelevant and denied.

47. In respect of paragraphs 90 to 105, the point that the claimants attempt to convey is obscure. It also appears to be contradictory. It certainly is irrelevant to the determination of the issue of a reservation of ownership. The allegations of statements and assurances made by Pattison are gratuitous in circumstances where Pattison is not a party. These allegations, which are denied, do not form part of the factual matrix relevant to this dispute.

48. In respect of paragraphs 106 to 114, the exchange of correspondence is admitted. The respondents are still in the process of reconciling the claimants' claim amounts in terms of the total amounts outstanding as at the date of Edcon's business rescue. In this regard, and as mentioned above, Edcon has ordered and paid for stock from the claimants since the commencement of Edcon's business rescue. Moreover, certain of the claimants have not processed quantity differences and/or rebate/advertising credits against their claim amounts.

49. In light of the aforesaid, the respondents are of the view that, in the absence of further evidence being led, the quantum of the claimants' claims is an issue that should be dealt with directly between the parties to reconcile the differences. If the parties are unable to reconcile the differences, it can then be referred to the expert for determination, however, will necessitate oral evidence and a discovery process.
50. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, and the claimants' reliance on the stock on hand around the time of the commencement of Edcon's business rescue proceedings, the respondents deny that the claimants have and/or would be able to validly assert a reservation of ownership over the stock on hand as at the date of the commencement of Edcon's business rescue proceedings as they have not been able to link unpaid stock to unpaid invoices, as was required in terms of the process set out in YV12.
51. In respect of the independent affidavits deposed to on behalf of the remaining claimants:
- 51.1. All of these affidavits attempt to rely on their credit application forms, other agreements and dealings with other parties in support of their assertion to a reservation of ownership. These allegations are irrelevant and have no application to the contractual relationship between Edcon and the claimants, as expressly provided for in the MSAs.

040-345

- 51.2. Moreover, as with the first claimant, no case has been established for custom or trade usage, or that same could alter the expressly agreed terms of the MSA. The allegations regarding the interpretation of clause 9.4 of the MSA and the reliance on the references in an invoice are also denied for the reasons set out above.
52. To the extent that I have not dealt with any specific allegation contained in the affidavits filed on behalf the respective claimants, to the extent that such allegation is inconsistent with what is stated herein, same is denied.
53. As an aside, I note that the claimants' adapted practice note makes reference to Edcon (Pty) Limited as the contracting party to certain of the MSAs. It is the same entity as Edcon - which was converted from a private company to a public company. As will be noted from the registration number, the only difference is the change in "07" to "06".
54. In all of the circumstances, it is submitted that the claimants have failed to establish any reservation of ownership in and to the goods supplied to Edcon.
55. Consequently, the respondents seek a ruling in their favour with costs, including the cost of two counsel.

REPLYING AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF INTERLOCUTORY APPLICATION AND ANSWERING AFFIDAVIT TO COUNTER-APPLICATION

I, the undersigned,

LETITIA FIELD,

do hereby make oath and say:

1. I am an adult female director of Edward Nathan Sonnenbergs Inc., the attorneys of record for the first, second and third respondents ("the Respondents").
2. I deposed to the founding affidavit in the interlocutory application ("the founding affidavit"), instituted on behalf of the Respondents, to compel the first to eighth applicants ("the Applicants") to file their practice note, heads of argument and chronology table ("the application to compel"). I remain duly authorised to depose to this affidavit. The terms defined in the founding affidavit will continue to be referred to herein.
3. The facts contained in this affidavit are within my personal knowledge, save where the contrary appears from the context, and are true and correct. Where I refer to information conveyed to me by others, I believe such information to be true and correct.
4. I have read the Applicants' opposing affidavit, deposed to by Kubendran Moodley ("the opposing affidavit"), in terms of which the Applicants:
  - 4.1. oppose the application to compel the delivery of inter alia their heads of argument in the main application; and

- 4.2. counter-apply for the following relief ("the counter-application"):
  - 4.2.1. that the application to compel be postponed sine die, with leave being granted to the Applicants to supplement the opposing affidavit, if necessary; and
  - 4.2.2. that the main application be stayed until the lapse of 30 days after the final determination of the Applicants' new application for inter alia leave to institute action proceedings against Edcon ("action proceedings") and to join Edcon's creditors, in the event that the Applicants fail to institute such action proceedings, alternatively, after the final determination of the action proceedings, whichever is the latter ("the leave application").
5. The opposing affidavit fails to set out any valid grounds for the Applicants':
  - 5.1. application for condonation;
  - 5.2. opposition to the application to compel; and
  - 5.3. relief sought in the counter-application, which is also contradictory to what is stated in paragraph 29 of the Applicants' founding affidavit to the leave application.
6. As is the case in the Applicants' founding affidavit in the main application, much of what is contained in the opposing affidavit is irrelevant, emotive and misleading. It is also contradictory. This has been done to create atmosphere in an attempt to detract from the fact that the Applicants have no grounds for opposing the application to compel and delaying the final determination of the main application.

7. Of further concern is the misrepresentation to this Court of the factual position relating to inter alia the conduct of the Respondents and the determination of the quantum of the Applicants' claims, which is heavily relied upon by the Applicants to justify, incorrectly, the relief sought by the Applicants in the counter-application. This will be dealt with further below.
8. Irrespective of the aforesaid, it is necessary to point out the following:
- 8.1. This is an interlocutory application to compel the delivery of inter alia the Applicants' heads of argument in the main application.
- 8.2. The main application was instituted by the Applicants – they are dominus litis. The Applicants were obliged to deliver their heads of argument 6 months ago. They did not. The Respondents wrote to the Applicants repeatedly, and the Applicants repeatedly required time and made undertakings to file their heads of argument.
- 8.3. The Respondents simply want the Applicants to file their heads in the main application, which has been ripe for hearing since January 2021, which is required to apply for an opposed date.
- 8.4. The issue for determination in the main application is discreet - whether the expert determination made by the fourth respondent should be set aside and determined by another retired judge. This issue is completely independent and separate to any of the issues in the leave application and contemplated action proceedings.
- 8.5. The Applicants have filed the opposing affidavit at the last minute to avoid filing their heads of argument and dealing with the merits of the main application.

The issues raised in the opposing affidavit relating to the leave application and/or contemplated action proceedings are issues that would be argued and determined in such proceedings if they so wish. It is completely inappropriate for the Applicants to now attempt to deal with these issues in an interlocutory application to compel them to file their heads of argument and to do what they should have done 6 months ago.

8.6. At present, there is a binding expert determination which the Applicants want to set aside in terms of the main application. This has nothing to do with any of the other issues raised by the Applicants in the leave application and contemplated action proceedings.

8.7. The opposing affidavit and counter-application are a continued abuse by the Applicants:

8.7.1. It is clear that the Applicants have realised that there is no merit in the main application, and this is their attempt to avoid dealing therewith, without withdrawing the main application and tendering the costs thereof.

8.7.2. As set out in the founding affidavit, the Applicants on numerous occasions, and over the period of at least four months, undertook to file their heads of argument and then failed to do so. At no stage prior to 16 August 2021 did they advise the Respondents that the leave application would be instituted or that they were contemplating same. The Applicants caused the Respondents to incur costs for opposing the main application and delivering heads of argument, in hindsight, well knowing that they would not file heads of argument. The Applicants deliberately delayed the finalisation of the main application.

8.7.3. The bulk portion of the legal costs have already been incurred in this matter and the main application should be determined without further delay. It is in any event contradictory for the Applicants to refuse to incur legal costs for the preparation of heads of argument, but then oppose the application to compel and file a 18 page answering affidavit, replete with unnecessary content.

8.7.4. What is clear from the Applicants' conduct to date, the opposing affidavit, the leave application and the contemplated action proceedings, is that the Applicants are intent on delaying the finalisation of the business rescue proceedings and causing the Respondents to incur unnecessary legal costs in matters which have already been finally determined and statutorily binding on the Applicants. The Applicants' conduct has been prejudicial to Edcon's business rescue proceedings and its other creditors.

8.7.5. The Applicants should not be permitted to do this any further.

9. In addition, the counter-application and allegations made in the opposing affidavit in support thereof directly contradict what the Applicants state in paragraph 29 of the leave application, being that the Applicants "intend to make application for that proceeding [the fresh determination of the dispute relating to the reservation of ownership], after its referral to oral evidence or trial [i.e. assuming the main application is granted and that the dispute is capable of being referred to oral evidence or trial], to be heard together with the action proceedings in contemplation".

10. This clearly contemplates and would first require a determination of the main application and the leave application in favour of the Applicants.
11. The main application concerns aspects about which a final and binding determination has been made. It was after an agreed process of filing affidavits. No evidence may be received, nor may the record be enlarged, to determine the issue in the main application, that is, whether the determination in the dispute resolution should be set aside.
12. In the circumstances, the Applicants' opposition is without merit and no case is made for the relief sought in the counter-application. It is telling that, nowhere prior to the delivery of the leave application on 16 August 2021 did the Applicants inform the Respondents of their intention not to file heads of argument or to bring the leave application.
13. I turn to deal with the allegations made in the opposing affidavit. I do not intend to deal with each allegation contained therein and my failure to do so should not be construed as an admission thereof. In light thereof that this affidavit was prepared on an urgent basis, the Respondents reserve their rights to deal more fully with the allegations made in the opposing affidavit if the application to compel is not determined on 25 August 2021.

Ad paragraph 3 of the opposing affidavit

14. It is denied that the contents of the opposing affidavit are all true and correct for the reasons set out herein.

Ad paragraphs 6 and 7 thereof

15. The "preliminary observations" and "reasons" for the Applicants' opposition to the application to compel are without merit and irrelevant to the application to compel.

Ad paragraphs 8 to 16 thereof

16. This is an interlocutory application to compel the delivery of heads of argument in accordance with the practice of this Court. The Applicants' opposition, despite being dominus litis, is in bad faith and shows a complete disregard for the Court, the rules, the practice and for opponents. There is no reason why the Applicants' heads of argument cannot be filed, irrespective of what the Applicants wish to do with the leave application and/or contemplated action proceedings.
17. In any event, it is denied that the reasons proffered by the Applicants for the late filing of their notice of opposition and opposing affidavit entitle the Applicants to condonation.
18. The first reason is gratuitous and contradictory to the allegations made in the support of the second reason. The Applicants' heads of argument were due by February 2021 already, being 6 months ago. If the Applicants' version of events is to be believed, they have been contemplating the institution of further proceedings against the Respondents since then. Yet they kept quiet, made undertakings to file their heads of argument, caused the Respondents to file heads of argument and took no steps to finalise the main application.
19. It is also denied that there is a "link" between the leave application and the main application, and that the leave application and the application to compel should be postponed, to allow the leave application, and potential further action proceedings, to be determined first. This course of action is nothing more than a stratagem by the Applicants to avoid dealing with the merits of the main application, which they have now realised is meritless.

20. The Applicants' conduct to date has been prejudicial to the Respondents and Edcon's creditors.
21. To the extent that any allegation contained in these paragraphs has not been addressed, it is denied.

Ad paragraphs 17 to 24 thereof

22. For the reasons set out herein:

22.1. I did not agree to Mr Moodley's request and advised inter alia that the Respondents will be proceeding with the application to compel and that a punitive costs order was being contemplated;

22.2. the punitive costs order is justified;

22.3. it is denied that the Applicants were compelled to bring the counter-application, which is contradictory to what is stated in paragraph 29 of the founding affidavit to the leave application, and that they are entitled to the relief sought in the counter-application; and 22.4. the allegations contained in paragraphs 23 and 24 are also denied.

Ad paragraphs 25 to 36 thereof

23. The issue of the determination of the quantum is irrelevant for the purposes of the application to compel and forms part of the determination which the Applicants want to have set aside and determined by another retired judge in terms of the main application.

24. In addition, the allegations contained in paragraphs 25, 27, 31 – 36 are false and denied.

25. Contrary to what is asserted in these paragraphs, the Respondents have been attending to the finalisation of the Applicants' claim amounts.

26. As at the date of deposing to this affidavit, the Respondents have:

26.1. Confirmed the accepted claim amounts of:

26.1.1. the first applicant, in respect of:

26.1.1.1. Majestic Clothing, on 7 June 2021, with the confirmation having been resent on 20 August 2021 upon realising that the incorrect email address was initially used; and 26.1.1.2. Princeton Schoolwear Manufacturers, on 22 August 2021;

26.1.2. the second applicant on 20 August 2021;

26.1.3. the fourth applicant on 23 June 2021;

26.1.4. the fifth applicant on 30 June 2021;

26.1.5. the sixth applicant on 2 July 2021; and 26.1.6. the seventh applicant on 4 May 2021.

- 26.2. Requested, and are still waiting for, the first applicant to provide an updated claim form in respect of Star Clothing Manufacturers (discussions with the first applicant on this claim commenced as far back as July 2020);
- 26.3. Have been corresponding with the eighth applicant in regard to the reconciliation of its claim amount and are waiting for the eighth applicant to respond; and
- 26.4. Been attending (internally) to the reconciling items relating to the claim of the third applicant.
27. A copy of the correspondence addressed to the respective Applicants confirming the contents of paragraphs 26.1 to 26.3 above, as well as the delivery and/or read receipts by the respective Applicants, is attached, marked "LF1". It is anticipated that correspondence will be addressed to the third applicant to finalise its claim amount during the week of 23 August 2021.
28. As is evident from the above and annexure LF1, the correspondence addressed to the Applicants largely predates the opposing affidavit, which was deposed to on 19 August 2021, and the failure to disclose this in the opposing affidavit is telling.
29. Evidently, the allegations relating to the Respondents' conduct and purported issues with the quantum of the Applicants' claims, in particular, paragraph 31 of the opposing affidavit which states that the Respondents "made no endeavour whatsoever to indicate what their differences are or to attempt to reconcile that with the applicants", are, simply put, false and a deliberate attempt to mislead this Court.

30. There is accordingly no underlying factual issue or dispute of fact. Even if there was, which is denied, it would not form a basis for the opposition to the application to compel or for the relief sought in terms of the counter-application.

Ad paragraphs 37 to 44 thereof

31. The Respondents' refusal to agree to a private review is irrelevant to the application to compel and cannot be used by the Applicants as an excuse for their failure to comply with the practice of this Court and delaying the determination of the main application.
32. The Applicants' true motive of delaying and frustrating the finalisation of Edcon's business rescue proceedings, to the prejudice of Edcon's creditors, is again demonstrated by the Applicants' referral to the finding in the main application being susceptible to appeal in paragraph 43 of the opposing affidavit.
33. The assumptions made in paragraphs 41 and 42 are denied.

Ad paragraphs 45 to 56 thereof

34. For the reasons set out herein, the allegations contained in these paragraphs are irrelevant to the application to compel.
35. Once again, the Applicants' true motive of delaying and frustrating the finalisation of Edcon's business rescue proceedings (which commenced as far back as 29 April 2020), to the prejudice of Edcon's creditors, is demonstrated by the various threatened proceedings referred to in paragraphs 46 to 48 of the opposing affidavit and the allegations contained in paragraph 49 thereof.
36. The allegations contained in paragraphs 52 and 53 are denied for the reasons set out herein. The Applicants cannot deal with any issue relating to the quantum of the Applicants' claims in other proceedings, as this already forms part of the determination, subject to the main application. Clearly, the Applicants are not entitled to have the main application stayed in an attempt to do so.

37. The Applicants' are the sole cause of the unnecessary incurrence of costs referred to in paragraphs 54 and 56.
38. The allegations contained in paragraph 55 are also denied. The issue in the main application must still be determined, irrespective of the outcome of the leave application and the contemplated action proceedings.
39. The Applicants brought the main application and must either withdraw same, and tender the wasted costs, or proceed to have the main application finally determined without further delay.

Ad paragraphs 57 to 61 thereof

40. The allegations contained in paragraph 57 are denied and are contradictory to what is stated in paragraphs 58 to 61, which are also denied.
41. Clearly, the Applicants had, and still have, no intention of proceeding with the main application.
42. The reasons provided in these paragraphs do not excuse the Applicants' failure to deliver their heads of argument in the main application and causing the Respondents to incur unnecessary legal costs. The Applicants cannot allege that they failed to file their heads of argument to save costs as all of the affidavits have already been filed and the main application is ripe for hearing.
43. The Applicants deliberately failed to file their heads to prevent the main application from being determined.

44. Again, the Applicants must either withdraw the main application, and tender the costs, or deliver their heads of argument so that the main application can be enrolled without further delay. The Applicants can argue the stay when the main application is argued. There is, however, no reason why the Applicants should not be compelled to file their heads of argument.

Ad paragraphs 62 to 72 thereof

45. The allegations contained in these paragraphs are irrelevant to the application to compel and are denied for the reasons already set out herein.

Ad paragraph 76 thereof

46. The allegations contained in this paragraph are denied for the reasons set out herein.

Ad paragraph 77 thereof

47. The allegations contained in this paragraph are denied. Evidently the Respondents could not rely on Mr Moodley's undertaking to provide the heads of argument as he did not do so. He also did not advise the Respondents of the intended leave application.

Ad paragraph 78 thereof

48. The Applicants have failed to set out any valid reasons in the opposing affidavit disputing the contents of paragraph 24 of the founding affidavit.

Ad paragraph 79 and the concluding paragraph thereof

49. The allegations contained in these paragraphs are denied for the reasons set out herein.

042-17

CONCLUSION

- 50. It is submitted that no case is made for the opposition to the application to compel or the relief sought in the counter-application.
- 51. The Applicants have deliberately failed to file their heads of argument, despite making repeated undertakings to do so and in circumstances where there was no intention to proceed with main application, which they brought.
- 52. This has caused an unnecessary incurrence of costs.
- 53. This affidavit has been prepared under unnecessary time constraints. The right is reserved to supplement it, should the need arise.
- 54. In the circumstances, it is submitted that a punitive cost order is justified against the Applicants.
- 55. The Respondents will accordingly seek an order in accordance with the notice of interlocutory application and the dismissal of the counter-application, with costs on the scale of attorney and client, including the cost of two counsel. These costs are to be paid jointly and severally by the Applicants.

Good day Roheeth,

Please note Hilda no longer works at Edcon.

Thank you for the documents received, however the account in query is for vendor 12378 - STAR CLOTHING - KINGSGATE CLOTHING, we received a claim form for R19,608,340.51, however the revised statement was for R12,847,408.88, we therefore require a revised claim form for R12,8 mill or a statement that matches to the claim amount of R19,6 mill.

Kind regards,

Dear Hilda,

Your email below refers.

I am not sure as to the reason why you are requesting for a claim form to be completed on behalf of Majestic, considering that we had previously done so and uploaded the claim together with all supporting documentation to the BRP via their portal as well as emailed same to them for which we subsequently received an acknowledgement.

In addition, you were in possession of the same claim document when you sent me an email on the 29th of July 2020, which is evident from the email thread below.
